

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT SERIES

WEDNESDAYS 1-2pm

WELLS HALL B135

September 13	Surviving technology: Finding your way with so many choices (Dustin De Felice)
September 20	Reading, writing, and genres in lower-level language classrooms (Charlene Polio)
September 27	Beyond essays: Creating anthologies in the literature classroom (Katie McEwen)
September 29 Wells B342	CeLTA Signature Speaker Series Gary Ockey, Iowa State University 10am: Creating more authentic oral test constructs and tasks (workshop) 3pm: Selecting speakers with “appropriate” speech varieties for an L2 listening assessment (talk)
October 4	Effective writing: Who decides? (Carol Arnold)
October 11	Meet the CeLTA fellows!
October 18	Basic Outcomes Student Self Assessment: Improving language learning through self-assessment training (Gabriela Sweet)
October 25	Collaboration in materials development: LCTL Partnership processes and materials (Emily Heidrich & Koen Van Gorp)
November 1	Listen up! Including more listening in the language classroom (Adam Gacs)
November 8	Creating inclusive and accessible language learning environments (Nate Evans)
November 29	Machine translation: A tool for cultural and linguistic literacy (Catherine Ryu)
December 6	Film and storytelling in French language classrooms and beyond (Safai Babana-Hampton)