

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT SERIES

WEDNESDAYS 1-2pm, WELLS HALL B135

January 25	Getting on board with ACTFL listening (Paula Winke)
February 1	Participatory action research and the language curriculum (Sandro Barros)
February 8	Designing accessible course Word documents (Kate Sonka)
February 15	What we look at when we learn vocabulary: Using eye-tracking to explore chinese character learning (Stella He)
February 22	The ACTFL Oral Proficiency Interview (OPI): What is it all about? + Start practicing! (1-2:30pm - Koen Van Gorp)
February 24 (Friday)	SLS Symposium – 9:30am - 3:30pm, Wells Hall B342 Co-sponsored by CeLTA
March 1	Evaluating online classes with the Quality Matters framework (Daniel Trego)
March 15	A picture's worth 1,000 words: An online wordless repository (Erin Degerman)
March 22	Integrating film and storytelling in the French language classroom and beyond (Safoi Babana-Hampton)
March 29	Know your copy rights! (Amy Blair)
April 5	The transformative power of story: Advocating for language learning (Luca Giupponi et al.)
April 12	Grammar for Mateo: Form-focused online activities for FRN 320 (Anne Violin-Wigent)
April 19	CeLTA grant updates: Language Proficiency Flagship and LCTL Partnership (Susan Gass, Paula Winke, et al.)
April 26	Creating flexible, self-motivated language and culture learners (Matthew Handelman et al.)

Pizza and soft drinks will be served at all Wednesday events.
For more information about each event, please visit:
facebook.com/CELTamsu/events

